Propagated Needle Sensation with Charles Buck

Rare opportunity to listen to the pioneer practitioner Charles Buck about the Qi Needle Technique. Moreover, you will have his guidance in a practical session! This workshop has limited seats. Book before it is too late!

Charles is a pioneer practitioner with more than three decades of experience of study, practice and teaching in Chinese medicine. His career has spanned multiple disciplines including medical sciences and the theory, philosophy and practice of clinical oriental medicine. He has a particular interest in fertility, cancer patient care, and dermatology and for years he has taught these and other subjects extensively in the globe.

Charles was the former Chairman of The British Acupuncture Council. He is now actively working in various organisations including the Board of the Register of Chinese Herbal Medicine (UK) and Acupuncture Now Foundation.
